Press release
For local and regional distribution

TAQRAMIUT NIPINGAT INC. WELCOMES NEW DIRECTOR OF TELEVISION PRODUCTION AND POST-PRODUCTION FOR ONE-YEAR MANDATE

Dorval (Quebec), April 24, 2023 – Taqramiut Nipingat Inc. (TNI) is pleased to welcome Madeleine Allakariallak as Director of Television Production and Post-Production for a one-year mandate. Madeleine, who hails from Nunavut and has strong family ties to Nunavik, is an acclaimed signer-songwriter and has over 15 years of combined work experience in the fields of radio and television broadcasting as a reporter, host, and producer.

“We are delighted to have Madeleine join us. She brings to the table a wealth of knowledge that will lend itself well to the position and make her a great addition and asset to the team,” expressed Julie Grenier, Director General at TNI.

Madeleine will work out of TNI’s administrative and television production centre in Dorval with the production team to produce content for NCTv, TNI’s regional television network, which offers approximately 60 hours of programming per week and is available on channel 309 in Nunavik through each local cable provider. She will also work on Adventures on Inuit Land, a series produced by TNI for the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network (APTN).

About Taqramiut Nipingat Inc.

Taqramiut Nipingat Inc. (TNI) is a non-profit organization that was incorporated on September 8, 1975, under Part II of the Canada Business Corporations Act. Its mandate is "to promote by communication means the culture and the image of Inuit, by Inuit, to the Inuit and to the national and international scenes." TNI’s membership consists of each of the Inuit beneficiaries under the James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement (JBNQA), each of the Inuit municipal corporations recognized by the JBNQA, one representative from the Inuit community of Chisasibi, and other individuals, associations, or corporations whose applications for admission as Members have been accepted by resolution of the Board of Directors and by the Members of the Corporation at duly convened meetings. Also, TNI is registered as a charitable organization.

-30-

Source:

Josie Santini
Information Officer / Executive Assistant
455 Fénelon Boulevard, Suite 304
Dorval (Quebec) H9S 5T8
514-636-0999, ext. 112
jsantini@taqramiut.qc.ca
www.tni-rtn.com